The year to come promises to be the most exciting yet for advances in 3-D CAD, Analysis, and Rapid Prototyping. DESKTOP ENGINEERING will bring you —

- MORE new product news, updates on advancing technology trends, and case studies.
- MORE expert evaluations of technology for design engineering.
- MORE coverage of every step from concept through design.
- MORE updates on the changing face of engineering — like the migration to 3D MCAD and global design collaboration in real time.

No other publication is so thoroughly focused on the exact technologies design engineers need to fulfill their mission-critical responsibilities

This is your LAST CHANCE to keep
DESKTOP ENGINEERING coming.
